BILL STANLEY

STANDING OVATION — Jim Curzi, all-time gymnastics great at Butler High who won the first Nissen Award nearly two decades ago while at Michigan State University, always rated the pommel horse as the most difficult apparatus to master in this demanding sport. This past weekend Bill Stanley, repeat PIAA champion under the same Golden Tornado colors, thrilled his home crowd at University Park's Rec Hall with a perfect 10.0 mark on the side horse during a Saturday afternoon routine, bringing his Penn State teammates flocking around him and the Nittany Lions faithful to their feet. Directly in front of Stanley is PSU coach Karl Schier with teammate Bobby Painton at the left and Terry Bartlett at the right. Unfortunately Penn State finished third in team competition behind repeat champion Nebraska and No. 2 UCLA.

WHEN THE FIG SCORING SYSTEM STILL INCLUDED A PERFECT TEN, BILL STANLEY ACHIEVED THE PERFECT SCORE NOT ONCE BUT TWICE. BILL ACHIEVED THE FEAT IN THE NCAA NATIONAL PRELIMINARIES AT PENN STATE. HE ALSO ACHIEVED A PERFECT TEN IN A PENN STATE VERSUS RUSSIA DUAL MEET HELD AT PENN STATE. THREE OF THE FOUR JUDGES AWARDED BILL A TEN, TWO OF THE JUDGES WERE RUSSIANS. IN AN UNFORTUNATE TURN OF EVENTS, THE SUPERIOR JUDGE POSTED THE OFFICIAL SCORE AS 9.95. TO ALL OF US BACK HERE IN BUTLER GYMNASTICS HISTORY, BILL'S TRUE SCORE WAS A 10.00.
